Everyone needs a will or trust to avoid relying on the Illinois intestate statute (the law that is applied when someone dies without a will or trust) because every family situation is different. More directly, would you be willing to let a judge decide who should raise your children, handle your personal assets, or make decisions about your healthcare? Certainly not.

You can keep these important decisions out of a judge's hands by preparing simple (or if necessary, complex and detailed) estate planning documents.

Working together with you, the attorneys and staff at Lavelle Law, Ltd. will help you decide what is best for you and your family. We can prepare simple and affordable wills and trusts, or when necessary, other estate planning instruments such as complex Grantor Retained Annuity Trusts, Family Limited Partnerships, Family Foundations, or Charitable Remainder Trusts.

Please call our Intake Coordinator, Jessie at (847) 705-7555 to start the process now. If you call within the next 7 days, we will review your existing wills and trusts free of charge – whether we prepared them or not. It is easy, and it is important.
