Has your company been involuntarily dissolved for failure to file the required annual report with the Illinois Secretary of State? If so, this means that the company owners are now personally liable for the debts and obligations of the company. This is a situation which should be addressed immediately even if you do not intend to continue operating this business.

Often, companies are dissolved by mistake or because of a simple oversight. If your company was dissolved by mistake, our office offers a comprehensive program which makes your annual compliance almost effortless for you. If this has happened more than once, the cost of our service may be less than the penalties you have paid in the past. Our entire system was designed to keep you focused on your business, while we focus on helping you stay compliant and up to date with your legal filing requirements and protecting you from personal liability.

Other times, companies are simply allowed to dissolve because they are no longer active. This might be a serious mistake. Dissolving your business the right way can actually cut off the rights of anyone who might sue your company at some point in the future. Allowing the company to dissolve involuntarily does not cut off those rights and leaves the company owners open to personal liability.

I take compliance seriously. I am offering a free initial meeting and a free comprehensive review of your corporate records. Please call today and ask for Jessie to schedule a meeting. There is absolutely no cost for our initial meeting. We can set a plan for getting your company back into good standing, and reinstating your protection from personal liability, and preventing problems like this in the future.

4 Steps to a healthy corporation...

...and you don't have to be in charge of any of them.

Failure to file an annual report and maintain meeting minutes leads to the loss of protection from liability. Time is money. Entrepreneurs need a process that is simple, quick and affordable. That's exactly what we've designed. We're here to help keep you compliant and protect you from personal liability. Period.

1. We make it fast and easy. Our office will prepare your annual report for your signature at least thirty days in advance to give you plenty of time to receive it, review it, and send it back to us. We even give you a postage-paid return envelope so you literally sign it, send it, and forget it. We file it for you with the Secretary of State with proof of delivery so you don't have to worry about it.

2. We get it done right. For corporations, we will prepare your annual minutes as required by law. We constantly revise these minutes based on our ongoing review of Illinois court decisions. If you are sued or audited, you can bet that the plaintiff or the IRS will ask to see these minutes. If you do not have them, the door is open for personal liability.

3. We follow up. If the filing deadline is approaching and we haven't received your report, we will give you a call to remind you while we still have plenty of time to get it in and filed. In emergencies, we can even get it done same day. Other than actually signing it for you, we will do everything in our power to be sure it is filed on time.

4. We keep you informed. As a client of our Small Business Practice Group, you will get advance notice and free admission to all of our firm's seminars and business breakfast events. You will also receive our bi-monthly plain-English newsletter with tips and information to help you run your business and avoid legal pitfalls.
